Sir,

I have the honor to state that the marginally noted* Inam lands have been granted to the Jangam matt at Siddhawalli in the Nanjangud Taluk for feeding the Sivachar people.

The Amildar reports that the Matt is in a ruined condition; that the lands set apart for the matt are being divided among Basavalingia, Siddalingia, Rudria, Puttusamy and Jungiah and the produce there of being appropriated by them; that in his inspection he found the so called matt to be nothing but a dwelling house occupied by the families of the original grantee; and that there is no accommodation provided for travellers
